DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Claims 1-5 are withdrawn from further consideration pursuant to 37 CFR 1.142(b) as being drawn to a nonelected invention, there being no allowable generic or linking claim. Election was made without traverse in the reply filed on June 14, 2004.

Specification

2. The abstract of the disclosure is objected to because the elected invention is directed solely towards a "method for protecting occupants against threats..." and should reflect accordingly. Correction is required. See MPEP § 608.01(b).
3. The title of the invention is not descriptive. A new title is required that is clearly indicative of the invention to which the claims are directed, i.e., a method for protecting occupants against threats within an inner space of a chamber" for example.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

4. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:
The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.
5. Claims 6-7 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the enablement requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to enable one skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and/or use the invention. As presently recited, it is not clear how "implementing control over sustenance elements" is achieved or by what means "a control" is implemented.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

6. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

7. Claims 6-7 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Parish [U.S. Patent No. 4,959,901]. Parish teaches of a method for protecting occupants against threats within the inner space of a chamber, comprising the steps of; unfolding a portable shelter (unfolding shelter), erecting a chamber construction by inflating frame members of said chamber (erecting by inflating tubing), and implementing control over sustenance elements of said shelter (controlling the volume of air via an inlet valve and dump valve) as best understood by the examiner.

8. Claims 6-7 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Fritts et al., [U.S. Patent No. 5,007,212]. Fritts teaches of a method for protecting occupants against threats within the inner space of a chamber, comprising the steps of; unfolding a portable shelter (unfolding shelter), erecting a chamber construction by inflating frame members of said chamber (erecting by inflating support ribs), and implementing control over sustenance elements of said shelter (controlling the volume of air via valve 46) as best understood by the examiner.

Conclusion

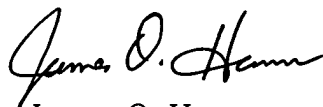

9. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. EPO publication 359691, Mattick, Gomes, and Dawkins describe inflatable shelters.
